

Deidra O’Gorman

Founder & Principal

DX Consulting

Deidra O’Gorman has 25 years of experience as a senior financial services executive. Before starting her respective businesses, she served as a CEO of a de novo financial institution. With her extensive banking experience, Ms. O’Gorman founded DX Consulting in 2014, where she works with financial institutions across the country. In 2018, Deidra and her business partners founded Empyreal Logistics, a logistics company that provides transit, cash processing and onsite compliance solutions for financial institutions and businesses.

Deidra was named one of 20 "People to Watch" in the cannabis financial services industry and has been featured in articles by the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, CNN and more. She is considered one of the foremost experts on banking compliance for cannabis and hemp businesses.