

Edward Gerovian, CAMS is First Vice President, BSA Investigations Manager for Bank of Hope in Los Angeles, CA, a $15 billion firm with over 60 branches nationwide, and the nation's largest Korean American bank. Edward has 19 years of experience in management roles within various Risk, Compliance, and BSA roles.

Prior to joining Bank of Hope, Edward served as Deputy BSA Officer for California United Bank for 4 years, with oversight responsibility of the Bank's BSA and OFAC programs. Edward's BSA and Risk background includes banks such as OneWest Bank (now CIT), BNY Mellon, and Countrywide. Edward completed his MBA in Finance from the University of La Verne, in 2002 and is a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist.