CCBN Partners with Spectrum Information Services

Irvine, CA (May 1, 2019) – The California Community Banking Network (CCBN) has named Spectrum Information Services (SIS) as a Preferred Service Provider, giving CCBN members access to discounts on high-quality document management and conversion solutions including document scanning, statement printing and mailing.

“We are always seeking cost-effective and time-efficient services that benefit our community banker’s day to day,” said David Haithcock CCBN President and CEO. “We are pleased to partner with SIS to share their streamlining business services that will enhance operations in our financial institutions.”

CCBN Members will receive a 10% discount on services. For information on services or to redeem this discount, contact: Curtis Pilon at (949) 752 – 7070 extension 212.

SIS has been operating for more than 28 years as an electronic document imaging and scanning service enterprise that offers turn-key financial document management solutions and financial record solutions to various companies including Banks, Trusts, Real Estate and Finance companies across the United States. The SIS customer base includes financial institutions with mortgage and loan departments wanting to streamline their business processes by installing document management systems.

Benefits of Financial Document Storage

- Sell and service more loans with the same amount of staff
- Reduction of paper, copy, and storage costs
- Establish a central repository with access security privileges assigned
- Apply retention rules to documents to save on data storage and comply with regulations
- Provide complete document security and disaster recovery
- Improve compliance with federal regulations in document storage and retrieval
- Provide online access of information and resources to branch offices, remote workers, and partners
